FINE CARD FOR WOODBINE

LARGE FIELDS OF GOOD CLASS MAKE UP OPENING DAY PROGRAM.

S. C. Hildreth Changes His Plans and Remains Away, but New York Contingent Is Strong-Messrs. Wilson and Belmont to Attend.

Toronto, Ont., September 23.—Large fields are named to go to the post in the different races at Woodbine tomorrow. The program is made up of seven races and has as features the Toronto Autumn Cup, the Woodbine Autumn Steeplechase and the Dominion Handicap, Olambala is top weight in the Toronto Autumn Cup at 129 pounds. Eleven of the thirty eligibles have accepted the weights, which insures a good contest. The Ontario Jockey Club has certainly been liberal with the horsemen, no less than $7,700 being added to the races making up tomorrow's card. It is the purpose of the club to encourage long-distance racing and, with this in view, horses that fancy a route will be catered to during the meeting. The distances in five of the seven races on the opening day are one mile and over. All of the big stables that came here from New York are represented in temporrow's races and the class of the racing will be high.

Richard T. Wilson, Jr., has reserved quarters at in the high.

Richard T. Wilson, Jr., has reserved quarters at one of the local hotels for the meeting and August Belmont will stop over for a couple of days on his way home from Quebec to New York. There was some disappointment over the failure of S. C. Hildreth to send his string here. One of the best stables on the course had been held in reserve for him and a number of applications for stable room from others turned down. The club did not know intil last night that Mr. Hildreth had changed his plans for shipping to Woodbine.

The meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations scheduled to have been held yesterday was postponed intil next Thursday. The illness of George M. Hendrie was responsible for the postponement.

W. S. Vosburgh, who will act as the official handicapper for the club and also as one of the stewards, arrived from New York this evening. Judge J. J. Burke is due in the morning. All the other officials are on hand.

Indications are that the going tomorrow at Woodbine will be muddy. A misty rain fell this evening and a deluge is promised for tomorrow.

SATISFACTORY PRICES ARE REALIZED.

Complete Reports of Sales of Yearlings Offered at Auction at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., September 23.—Satisfactory prices, everything considered, continue to be realized for the yearlings offered at the auction of the Kentucky Sales Company, which will come to a close tomorrow after having been in progress each evening since the opening sale on Tuesday last.

For the 62 yearlings that went under the hammer last night $11,435 was realized, making the average about $185. The top price was $1,400, paid by Will McDaniel (bidding for his brother Henry, who left tonight for Toronto) for the half-brother to False Nun and Jack Ryan, a good-looking chestnut colt by Voter—Bettie's Deceiver. T. C. McDowell bought Affable, sister to Hasty Agnes and half-sister to Yorkville Belle, for $750. J. W. May paid $790 for the sister to Miss Nett, a good winner now in his burn.

U. G. Sanders, of Flemingsburg, who has figured as a purchaser of some of the cheaper ones, will ship them to Pennsylvania, where they are to be sold without pedigrees for general utility purposes.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE TORONTO AUTUMN CUP

Today brings about the ninth running of the Toronto Autumn Cup, with some excellent race horses named to start. Probably the best racer that ever won this event was the really remarkable race horse. Claude, but the honors of the race belong to the capital mare, Bouquet, because of her successive victories in 1908 and 1909. Sir Raiph has the distinction of the fastest time of this race to his credit and at the time he won was a very speedy horse, but not afterwards so good as that year. The record of the event is as follows:

LEXINGTON RECORD BROKEN

TRACK MARK THAT HAS STOOD SINCE 1892 REDUCED BY INTRINSIC.

Hans Beats Bad News in a Thrilling Finish-Governor Gray Works Sensational Three-Quarters in 1:122 in Preparation for Stake Tuesday.

Lexington, Ky., September 23.—Catesby Woodford's Intrinsic, by running a mile and seventy yards this afternoom in 1:443, established a new track record and captured the feature race of the card from a smart band of three-year-old fillies, including Ethel D., Claudia and Handzaretta. Intrinsic was an overwhelming favorite and her supporters were anything but jubilant when Ethel D. went into a five-lengths lead during the first three-quarters, but thereafter she lagged badly and Intrinsic came on to win as her rider pleased, Ethel D. barely lasting to save second place from the fast-coming Claudia. The former track mark was 11:46, made by Irish Chief in 1892.

Interesting sport developed this afternoon, though the fields in some instances were unwieldy and crowding was frequent. About the best finish of the day came with the running of the last race when Hans and Bad News fought it out sharply, the former winning by a narrow margin.

T. C. McDowell's speedy lima repeated her recent winning performance and made a show of her opposition in the fifth race, Virginie landing second place from Eastern Star.

Twilight Queen, second choice, skil ridden by A. Thomas, handily took the opelant, ace from Alice Baird, with the favorite, Greenbridge, third. Jung Walton led to the stretch in this race and then retired.

Jim Mulvehill, a son of Peep o'Day, that worked

Judge Walton led to the stretch in this race and then retired.

Jim Mulvehill, a son of Peep o'Day, that worked exceptionally fast here last spring, got out of the matden ranks by leading all the way and lasting just long enough to win the second race by a neck from the favorite, Colston.

Merrick finished out of the money and dumped the talent in the third race, which produced a thrilling finish. Royal Captive led all the way and won by a head from Dainty Dame, a half length in advance of Chandicepee.

finish. Royal Captive led all the way and won by a head from Dainty Dame, a half length in advance of Chapultepec.

The weather was cloudy and this probably had the effect of keeping down the attendance, which numbered about 2,500. The rain which seemed imminent passed without even a sprinkle.

The most sensational work ever recorded over the local track was that of Governor Gray, J. T. Williams' crack two-year-old, this morning. In preparation for the Idle Hour Farm Handicap, for two-year-olds, at three-quarters of a mile, to be run next Tuesday, this son of Garry Herrmann and Salama worked three-quarters in 1:12½. He went the first quarter in 22½, three-eighths in 34½, half mile in 47½ and five-eighths in 1:00½. He had up 118 pounds, Some watches caught the time even faster, Hugh McCarren timing the trial in 1:12. Col. W. E. Applegate, part owner of Round the World, which is expected to meet Governor Gray in next Tuesday's stake race, was one of those who timed the trial, but he had no comment to offer. Capt. Jim Williams, who developed Governor Gray, wore a broad smile all afternoon.

Henry M. Zlegler, the Cincinnati theatrical man, who expects to dispose of all his thoroughbreds execpt the stallion Hermis at tomorrow's sale, arrived today from the east. Hermis is to be sent to France.

W. Stewart Hunter, who is here from New York

rived today from the east. Hermis is to be sent to France.

W. Stewart Hunter, who is here from New York in the interest of the Fasig-Tipton Company's annual sale, November 28 to December 3, said today that about 500 head will be catalogued, including all of John A. Drake's thoroughbreds, a big consignment of mares from John E. Madden's Hamburg Place, the closing out of the estates of T. L. Watt and James Galway and consignments from twenty-five or thirty others.

Archie Zimmer is intending to purchase several horses that he will campaign on the Kentucky tracks and later ship to some winter track.

H. R. Brandt is negotiating for the purchase of several likely-looking youngsters that he wants to race on winter tracks. He has received a good offer for Harrigan, but intends to retain him.

T. Abadie's horses were shipped tonight to Louisville.

BALLOT AND MASKETTE TO RACE NO MORE.

New York, September 23.—James R. Keene, who recently returned from an inspection of his thoroughbred stock at Castleton Stud in the blue grass section of Kentneky, has announced that Ballot greatest of the sons of Voter, and Maskette, winner of the Futurity of 1908, which arrived at Castleton while Mr. Keene was at the farm, are through with racing and will enter upon stud duties next spring. Ballot, a better race horse than his sire, is destined to succeed Voter at Castleton. But Voter, a vigorous horse of 16, is not yet at the end of his usefulness. Maskette, the fleetest and most successful mare Disguise ever sent to the races, will probably be mated with Ben Brush or Voter next spring. She is in rare condition for stud service.

FRANK O'NEILL'S SUCCESS IN FRANCE.

New-York, September 23.—Frank O'Neill, W. K. Vanderbilt's jockey in France, has ridden 122 winners this year and is said to lead all French and English riders in the winning averages. O'Neill is well known here. He was born in America and first became prominent as a jockey while in the employ of Fred Burlew. He wore the silks of Burlew, Newton Bennington. Sydney Paget and other contract employers on the New York tracks, besides accepting engagements for many of the biggest stables here. In 1995 O'Neill, who had been reducing his weight to a point which impaired his health, fell out of the saddle one day and was carried half fainting to the paddock. His physicians advised him to give up riding at ence in order to avoid a rapid decline, so the boy, who had saved $40,000, went into partnership with trainer Burlew, who had developed him. Together they bought a string of horses and raced all winter at New Orleans under the name of the B. & O. Stable. At first they were successful, but soon things began to break hadly and winnings were few and far between.

Determined to save something. O'Neill notified Burlew that the stable naist be sold and that settled it. The Hart-Agnew bill passed at Albany shortly after that and in quick order Burlew and O'Neill started for France, declaring that they never would race here again. The scale of weights governing the sport in France is higher than it is here, so after galloping horses on the Parisian tracks O'Neill decided to ride again. He soon won several races by dint of great horsemanship and the attention of Mr. Vanderbilt was attracted. O'Neill signed a fat contract and this year he is said to have earned $30,600, if not more.

FASTER WORK AT CHURCHILL DOWNS.

Trainers at Louisville Track Become More and More Active as Opening Day Approaches.

Louisville, Ky., September 23.—Whether trainers at Churchill bowns anticipated rain or whether they decided that the time had arrived for real tests of speed, the trials over that course today demonstrated that the track is lightning fast and that the horses quartered there are about ready for the races which will begin here Saturday, October 1.

The Fad and Topland worked together sevenighths of a mile, and while they were pulled up in 1:30% the first part of the trial was fast, with The Fad as pacemaker. The Fad went the first eighth in 12, the quarter in 23% three-eighths in 34% a half mile in 47% five-eighths in 1:01% and three-quarters in 1:15. Topland then overtook him and the pair finished together. Other work-outs today:

and the pair finished together. Other work-outs oday:

Alberta H.—Toree-quarters in 1:19.

Barleythorpe—Half mile in 50½; three-quarters in 1:18½; seven-eighths in 1:33, pulled up.

Black Magic—Half mile in 49½.

Chas. F. Grainger—Mile in 1:44½.

Czar—Mile in 1:44½.

Follie Levy—Three-eighths in 34½; half mile in 48½.

Max Hirsch is en route to Churchill Downs from the expected Bay with seven horses.

Wool Sandals—Mile in 1:43.

Max Hirsch is en route to Churchill Downs from Sheepshead Bay with seven horses.

Jockeys Dave Nicol and V. Powers are at the Downs. Today Nicol exercised The Pippin and Powers gailloped Barleythorpe. They are working like stable boys and the fat is coming off rapidly.

E. Henderson, who at one time rode for Wayne Lewis and William Gerst, and Steve Morrison, who used to ride for "Umbrella Bill" McGulgan and later for E. Corrigan, have signified their intention of returning to the saddle this fail.

Several horses at the Bowas have been suffering from colle, but Br, Talbot has brought all of them around. He says the trouble is caused by the eating of new outs.

off new oats.

All Kentucky railroads announced foday cheap fares for the fall meeting. The rate applies to all cities and towns in the state.

SEAGRAM IMPORTS RACERS FROM ENGLAND.

Toronto, Ont., September 23.—J. E. Seasram's stable has been strengthened by the addition of four importations from England. Two are three year-old colts—Galatine, by Gallinule—Burgonet, and Bezant, by Orme—Jennifer. Both are winners this year. Galatine, bought from Sir William Cooper, also won the Hainaker Plate at Goodwood last year in a field of ten starters. This year he won the Kainaker Plate at Goodwood last year in a field of ten starters. This year he won the Epsom in 1:42%, Bezant, which carried Viscount Falmount's magple colors, is by Orme—Jennifer. Hie was placed in all three of his starts last year, and won a maiden race of a mile at Windsor upon the occasion of his only start this year. The others are Kate Kittleberry, ch. f. 2. by Cerasus—Sweet Silence, which was placed in the last two of her four starts, and a filly by Simontault.
